SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. The structure of the Yugoslav politico-military "Cominformist Mission" in Bulgaria is reported to be as follows:

General Alexa MISUNOVIC (MISUROVIC) : Commandant of the Military Formations

| | |
|-----------------|------------------------------|
| Radomir ILIC | : Political Commissar |
| Todor TODOROVIC | : Secretary of the Committee |

2. Alexa MISUNOVIC, a member of the Yugoslav Communist Party since 1941, is said to have taken part in the struggle for national liberation. His last position in Yugoslavia reportedly was in the operations section at First (Seventh) Army headquarters in Nis.
3. Radomir ILIC, a member of the Yugoslav Communist Party prior to World War II, was reportedly attached to the Ministry of Interior.*
4. Todor TODOROVIC, described as an expert economist, is stated to have been a member of the Yugoslav Communist Party prior to World War II. His last official position in Yugoslavia was that of Assistant Minister of Finance for Serbia.
5. The first proletarian brigade of the Cominformists is stationed at (Gorna) Dzhumaya. Twenty officers, reportedly trained in Russia, have been assigned to this brigade, which is headed by a certain Major RZAK. Following completion of their training in the Soviet Union in January (presumably 1950), the officers were assigned to units of Yugoslav Cominformists.

Comment: FBIB of 30 June 1949, under Moscow dateline, reported from a letter of a political emigrant, one Radomir ILIC, aka "Mika", who was said to be the former assistant chief for UDB in Zajecar, Macedonia. In the latter ILIC stated that the TITO clique was attacking Soviet culture in order to prepare the people ideologically for defection to the imperialist camp.

Comment: Information of April 1949 listed Todor TODOROVIC, then Assistant Minister of Finance for Serbia, as a member of Secretariat for the Timocka Region, one of the newly formed regions.
